Working for Justice and Healing from your Spiritual Core TODAY • 11:15am • Chapel

Do you find that the daily news cycle leaves you feeling off center?

Do you sometimes find yourself living from a place of reactivity?

This is a follow-up to the event on vicarious trauma in June. CPC's Juanita Ryan will lead us in a discussion about what might help us move out of living from a place of reactivity and into a place of working for justice and healing that is rooted and grounded in love.

Isthmus Vocal Ensemble Concert: Sanctuary TODAY • 3pm

All-Church Book Read

CPC justice group Refuge invites you to participate in a book discussion about The Far Away Brothers. A story about the Flores twins who make their way across the Rio Grande and the Texas desert, and come under the control of US immigration authorities. This true story paints a vivid picture of refugee life from the point of view of two teenage boys.

Mexico City & Puerto Rico Mission Trip Update

Sunday, August 18 • 11:15am • Chapel

You're invited to join us after worship to hear updates from the Mexico City and Puerto Rico "Learn and Serve" travelers. Our desire is for the whole church to have ownership and involvement in these partnerships - whether as travelers, pray-ers, blog followers, and more.

Film Discussion - MOSES Event

Thursday, August 22 • 6:30pm • Fellowship Hall

Join us this summer to discuss "When They See Us" a new series on Netflix. It's a true story about the "Central Park 5," five young men of color who were wrongly accused of raping and assaulting a jogger in Central Park in 1990. Watch it this summer, and then join us to talk about it. For more information or to tell us you're coming register online through our Facebook page (@cpcmadison.org).
